

Wine Glass

Koe Wetzel and the Konvikts

Verse 1:

5 a.m. the alarm goes off Would've thought that it had done something wrong, by the way she slams her fist upon the snooze

Verse2:

No makeup on and just sun shades and you know she wont waste the time it takes the lonely never have too much to lose

Chorus:

Her wine glass is full of whiskey cause that merlot just wont do Yeah, her heart and home is empty She's still trying to feel that too

And that pack of Marlboro smoothes that she keeps behind her bed she'll break out one or two If she needs to catch her breath
Oh God, she needs to catch her breath

End Chorus

She'll talk to mom and then hang up the phone try to leave that old buzz alone then she'll fight the urge to find out how i've been Well she hates the taste of whiskey but she likes to go insane Its one drink for the pleasure, and another for the pain

She'll look back and she'll smile when that bottles gone

Repeat Chorus 2x
