

Birthday

J Church

I thought it was your turn to feel alone,
But I knew I was wrong when I hung up the phone,
 You've got Mom?`s eyes and so do I,
 Evident in every tone
 So I write another letter,
 But it all adds up to nothing,
 Today is your birthday,
 Have a happy birthday,
 There's nothing that you wanted
 I thought I would have a good explanation,
 I want to go back for your high school graduation,
 When you cut your lines through the midnight brine,
 It'll be to your best advantage
 So I write another letter,
 But it all adds up to nothing,
 Today is your birthday,
 Have a happy birthday,
 There's nothing that you wanted
 So I write another letter,
 But it all adds up to nothing,
 Today is your birthday,
 Have a happy birthday,
 There's nothing that you wanted
