Saving Grace

Lee Roy Parnell

I got home late, found you asleep
A flood of feelings washed over me
Overcome by your loving ways
Youve always been my saving graceIve been doubtful, Ive been lost in fear
My direction so unclear
But you stood by me and you, you kept the faith
Youve always been my saving graceOh, when I look at you
I realize how lucky I am
Your love lifted me
And you chose me to be your manOh, when I look at you
I realize how lucky I am
Your love lifted me
And you chose me to be your manNow when my future threatens me
And Im caught up in uncertainty
I feel your love and Im unafraid
I know youll be my saving grace
Youll always be my saving grace
