Piggy In the Middle

The Rutles

I know you know what you know
But you should know by now that you're not me
Talk about a month of Sundays
Toffee nosed wet weekend as far as I can seeHey diddle diddle
The cat and the fiddle
Piggy in the middle
Doo-a poo-pooBible punching heavyweight
Evangelistic boxing kangaroo
Orangutang and anaconda
Donald Duck and Mickey Mouse
Even Pluto tooHey diddle diddle
The cat and the fiddle
Piggy in the middle
Doo-a poo-poo[Incomprehensible]One man's civilization
Is another man's jungle, yeah
They say revolution's in the air
I'm dancing in my underwear
'Cause I don't careHey diddle diddle
The cat's in the fiddle
Piggy in the middle
Doo-a poo-poo
Doo-a poo-pooWalky talky man says hello, hello, hello
With his ballerina boots
You can tell he's always on his toes
Hanging on a Christmas tree
Screaming like a bogey man
Getting up my noseHey diddle diddle
The cat and the fiddle
Piggy in the middle
Doo-a poo-poo
A-poo poo-pooThis little piggy went to market
This little piggy stayed home
This little piggy had roast beef
And this little piggy had none
This little piggy went woo
All the way homeThis little piggy went to market
This little piggy stayed home
This little piggy had roast beef
And this little piggy had none

This little piggy went woo
All the way homeNow this little piggy went to market
This little piggy stayed home
This little piggy had roast beef
And this little piggy had none
And this little piggy went woo
All the way home, way homeNow this little piggy went to market
This little piggy stayed home
This little piggy had roast beef
And this little piggy had none
