Believe

Disturbed

Believe, when you lie
You will never need to recognize yourself
To deceive
To remove all chance of doubt and be received
With your lie
And deception is complete when you concede
And decide
To reject your lives, sacrificed to mePenance cant absolve your sin
Into me
Penance cant absolve your sin
All your belief
Cannot absolve your sin
All your belief
Cannot absolve your sinBelieve, when you lie
You will never need to recognize the source
Of deceit
To renew your faith in God
You must believe, in your lie
The redemption is complete and you conceive
And decline
To release your lives
Sacrificed to mePenance cant absolve your sin
Into me
Penance cant absolve your sin
All your belief
Cannot absolve your sin
All your belief
Cannot absolve your sinReap your life like you want to Recognize all youve come to Reap your life like you want to
Recognize all youve come to
Reap your life, veiled in shadow
Recognize faces of the crucified
I can hear their screams tonight
Ever haunting meBurn your lie into me
Penance cant absolve your sin
Into me
Penance cant absolve your sin
All your belief

Cannot absolve your sin
All your belief
Cannot absolve your sinI don't want your believe
Cannot absolve your sin
I don't want your believe
Cannot absolve your sin
