

Pipebomb on Lansdowne

Dropkick Murphys

It's Friday night and the street's filled with freaks
Come and watch as the useless flock to the beat
Of the techno noise that enhances their high
A bombs gonna blow and I think you know why Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne Street There's no room for dancing on your precious floors
'Cause you've got to save space for the jocks and whores
You say that our shows are for violent thugs
But we're not the ones on designer drugs Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne Street It's not a bunch of little kids we're out to harm and maim
So make sure the night you hurl the pipe there's no baseball game
Look for flyers, check the phoenix, are there any decent shows
If Keith Bennett isn't working then the bomb is good to go Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne Everybody's running out, bodies hit the ground
You'd better take cover
It's a pipebomb on Lansdowne
Pipebomb on Lansdowne
Pipebomb on Lansdowne Street
