

What Have You Done

Plan Three

All the stories are over
Chapters are done
All this chaos around me
Always alone Why did I see burning fires, in your eyes?
How could you let me end up, in this? Well I don't know
The rose I hold
Wont seem to grow So what have you done?
What are you hiding?
What are you holding on to?
This side of me is gone
It's killing me inside
To watch you go, but it's keeping me alive All the sirens are warning
Screaming our sins
I've been hiding the feeling
Of touching your skin Why did I put out the fires, in your eyes?
How can I erase the living, in me? I need to go
My lonely soul
Falls on you So what have you done?
What are you hiding?
What are you holding on to?
This side of me is gone
It's killing me inside
To watch you go, but it's keeping me alive
(It's keeping me alive) So what have you done?
What are you hiding?
What are you holding on to?
This side of me is gone
It's killing me inside
To watch you go
