All His Suits Are Torn

NOFX

Billy Cobin lost it all
We knew he would eventually
Some wonder why he took the fall
Others just ask who the hell is he
And why should we care for him?A baggy man with baggy clothes
A face made of paper mache
He lost his humor years ago
Along with his molars
His head planted beneath his shouldersKill the pain, integrity don't keep you warm and sane
Throw me out with the bath water
Don't wanna be, anyone who would wanna know meBilly Cobin had a time
Billy Cobin had a place
Following the fifty minute climb
Billy took a seven second leap
A cannonball plunge off the deepKill the pain, integrity don't keep you warm and sane
Throw me out with the bath water
Don't wanna be, anyone who would wanna know meAnyone who would wanna know me
Anyone who would wanna know me
Anyone who would wanna know meNa na na na na na na na
