Bite to Break Skin

Senses Fail

So let me take this medicine
To quench my love for violent things
My swan song willBe like a bullet laced in anger
As the razor cuts the
Soft spot on your heel(It's back)
It's getting slower
(This war)
It's getting harder
To fight by myself(This place)
A bitter fashion
(Ripped out)
This shield that I have
Tears rain from aboveDo you see the life I lead?
An' so follow me into the sun
And I will bleed the poison dryThese bayonet scars never seize
To blind the light shed from the beast
And all we do is hate(Passion)
From constant visions
(Angels)
A round of useless
Good has lost its heartDo you see the life I lead?
So follow me into the sun
And I will bleed the poison dry
For you
For youFor you
For you
For you
[Incomprehensible]
For you
For you
For youBite to break skin, don't give the secret
My stoic face, bleeding with passion
The phoenix will die inside the firestorm
I am the son follow my footstepsBite to break skin don't give the secret
My stoic face bleeding with passion
The phoenix will die inside the firestorm
I am the son follow my footsteps
