Let It All Hang Out

David Lee Roth

I was driving this morning
And sat in traffic on the way to work, work
Soon as I got in, my boss is tripping
And acting like a freaking jerk, jerkMe and my girl ain't speak in weeks
And I can't remember the reason why, why, why
On top of that it's a recession
I feel like Jay-Z, this can't be life, lifeTonight I'm leaving all my worries
And my problems in the house
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it, gonna let it
All hang out, let it all hang outIt's the last day of the weekend
Boy, I need to release
And let it all hang out, let it all hang out
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it all hang outTime for me to leave this place
Don't feel like it's going to come, come, come
I got bills on top of bills and I don't know
Where I'm getting my money from, fromThe walls feel like their closing in
I honestly don't feel like
I can make it, make it, make it
I'm so mad and I can't take it, that's whyTonight I'm leaving all my worries
And my problems in the house
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it, gonna let it
All hang out, let it all hang outIt's the last day of the weekend
Boy, I need to release
And let it all hang out, let it all hang out
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it all hang outMe and JD chilling in the shack
Sharing Chiclets from the same pack
One hundred eighty proof Vitaminwater
Energy flavor, take us to your daughterI wanna see you pretty ladies on the dance floor
Put your hands up in the air like you don't care no more
We gonna hit the town tonight
We were born to rockTonight I'm leaving all my worries
And my problems in the house
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it, gonna let it
All hang out, let it all hang outIt's the last day of the weekend

Boy, I need to release
And let it all hang out, let it all hang out
I'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it all hang outI'm going out with my homies
And we gonna let it all hang out
