My Affliction

Levitys Law

Licked Tables, My Affirmation
You yield the promise and I soak in it
You call on rapture, your clad is stupor
With a clan of herding nostrils overt
Peripheral passion, pacification
Come down and youâ€™ll be

Dry and dim, bracing for half life
scrying when youâ€™ll have your next sip
Youâ€™ve preached so long
My dime my affliction

Fluid nausea my malady
You yield the promise and you piss on it
You stall with laughter, your drenched in torpor
A testament holding a crude bore
Fortunes followed far from fables
Come dawn and youâ€™ll be

Dry and dim, bracing for half life
Scrying when youâ€™ll take your next hit
Youâ€™ve preached so long
My dime my affliction

Consequently consequence brings me
To my knees and you owe to me
Its taking me over
Its taking me over
A rancid love affair

Dry and dim, bracing for half life
Scrying when weâ€™ll have our next taste
Youâ€™ve preached so long
My dime my affliction

Oh Well
