

Only Alphabet

I Against I

Don't want to be searching anymore Tried so hard, forgot what I'm looking for Who'll rewind Who'll remind me what the search was for Talk so fast I can't keep up Tried so hard, forgot who I was Who am I Who are you and what the hell is true?! Only alphabet, only alphabet Everything that I don't say will tell you who I show myself in all the things I don't do Opinions forced upon me brutally Tomorrow's mistake is the truth today, you see Leave me be I need to be alone with my own thoughts You may think you are number one, but So do I; that's a song been sung A million times Or even more even more and more Know your lines; recite them in your head Repeat them on and on and once more after that Know your lines, repeat them in your head Again again again , they're only alphabet Don't want to be searching anymore Tried so hard forgot what I'm looking for Who'll rewind Who'll remind me; can't search anymore I show myself in all the things that I don't do Everything that I don't say will tell you who
