Poison

Shiny Toy Guns

I'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet youI'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet youI'm going to meet you

I'm going to meet youVoices are child in sound fades away

For silence is walking

Signs of you will leaveWhat will happen and now the same as you

'Til the end of someone's world

And the cradle says goodbye to yesterdayPainfully, I prepare a release

And poison takes me away

Poison takes me away, takes me awayListen, don't cry my child

When you awake

My father's table has set a place for youContact, with fire full love

As you're to know my days

A season of poison will bring the darkness soonPainfully, I prepare a release

And poison takes me away

Poison takes me away

On angel's wings, you learn to fly

On angel's wings, you learn to flyFrom this world you left below

I'm going to meet you

I've come to take you home

Mommy, mommy, mommyFrom this world you left below

I'm going to meet you

I've come to take you homeFrom this world you left below

I'm going to meet you

I've come to take you homePainfully, I prepare a release

And poison takes me away

Poison takes me away

On angel's wings, you learn to fly

On angel's wings, you learn to fly
