

Gold-Hearted Lady

Carlene Carter

Gold-hearted lady, they don't understand you
They take you for granted, think they understand you.
You're not one to cry but your heart has been broken
So one more love leaves a deeper scar open.
You live alone in your world of colors and Every new cowboy won't be like the others. Gold-hearted lady, half-hearted maybe Gold-hearted lady, they'll never understand why you needed their love. Gold-hearted lady, the gypsy-eyed wild one
The easy hair trigger on every man's gun.
You're nobody's fool, but then nobody wants you
You're every man's dream but still nobody loves you.
They left you my friend like some freak at the fair
You're a slow-dying fire, someone's unanswered prayer.
Gold-hearted lady, half hearted maybe
Gold-hearted lady, they'll never understand
Why you needed their love
Why you needed their love
Why you needed their love
Why you needed their love.
Gold-hearted lady, half hearted maybe
Gold-hearted lady, half hearted maybe
Gold-hearted lady, they'll never understand
Why you needed, needed their love
Why you needed their love
Why you needed their love
Why you needed their love
