

Swan Dive

Waxahatchee

Po po po
Ha ha ha I climb hand over hand closing my eyes
Too scared to look down I climb hand over hand
Putting distance between I and I and the ground I get to the top I stand on the edge
I look to the sky and say all my prayers What could be better than a swan dive into the asphalt?
I don't know
Nothing can be better than a swan dive into the asphalt You should ask somebody 'cause I've got nothing to lose tonight
I misplaced my life tonight chased all my friends away tonight
I don't say the right things I don't look the right way
That's just not me, I listen to my music too loud
And watch too much damn TV I get to the top I stand on the edge
I look to the sky and say all my prayers What could be better than a swan dive into the asphalt?
I don't know
Nothing can be better than a swan dive into the asphalt What could be better than a swan dive into the asphalt?
I don't know
Nothing can be better than a swan dive into the asphalt Tell me who can control the flood?
No one
Where are the angels?
Nowhere
Where's the honesty?
Nowhere
Where's the compassion?
Nowhere Who knows the truth?
(No one)
Who will believe in me?
(No one)
Well who will stand by me?
(No one)
Or who will fly with me?
(No one) Po po po I climb hand over hand closing my eyes
Too scared to look down I climb hand over hand
Putting distance between I and I and the ground I get to the top stand on the edge look to the sky What could be better than a swan dive into the asphalt?
I don't know
Nothing can be better than a swan dive into the asphalt There's nothing left for me
Nothing left for me
