The Haunting

Symphony X

Lightning flashes across the sky the hands of time keep falling like the pouring rain Soft voice call my name; I've seen this place before This whole thing is mad and still I can see that he awaits for meAs the knife cuts to the vein am I going insane? Have I lost my mind?
Ten years gone by, my friend, haunting me scars will fade but never diePrisioner waiting out my time looking back through years gone by My mind is always wondering what can I do to seal a different fate, can I undo the things I've done?
I lie on the ground without making a sound and cry for my life againAs the knife cuts to the vein am I going insane? Have I lost my mind?
Ten years gone by, my friend, haunting me scars will fade but never dieStaring down at me through my eyes I can see al the terror and pain still live on I can't leave silver strand is pulling me back to mortality[Solo]As the knife cuts to the vein am I going insane? Have I lost my mind?
Ten years gone by, my friend, haunting me scars will fade but never die
