Hysteria

Cripper

There is more to life than there's to see
It's my self-imposed priority
See the core and how it's thrilling me
Me and lunacy a unityUpside down
Inside out
Can't you see I'm ready now
To fall into placeHysteria
Look what hate & anger have done
Hysteria
Look what hate & anger have doneStrong is the one
To reanimate
All the madness I need to surviveStraight in your face
Ask yourself
Why the hell only I can draw you outEach time my heart missed a beat
Or where it cracked after deceit
I could complete the incomplete
And beg for chances to repeatSee me now?
See my way?
And now tell me once more that you don't know
What I meanHear my words and understand
To reunite before we end
Close your eyes, my dearest friend
And welcome all that I've to sendAre you with me?
Are you alike?
