

Missing An Angel

Johnny Reid

Ain't it funny how life
feels measured in time?
ain't it funny how fate
never leaves it to late?
I heard a heavenly song..
I started singing along still I can't beleive
you sent her here to me-Chorus:-
She fell from the sky !
right into my liiiiife,
through a hole in the clouds-
all her friends were looking dooown
I found her crying in the raaiiin
I helped her mend her wings!
When she never flew back,
Lord I knew for a fact, that you were missing an angel..Is she here to save us all?
or just to catch me when I fall?
is she part of your plan,
to make me a better man?
Every night I say a pray
in the morning she'll be there And if I die before I wake talk it up to give or take-Chorus-When she never flew back, Lord I knew for a fact You were missing an angel (x2)Ouu yeah, OUUUU yeah!
Missing an angel..
