Rebekka Karijord Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away The cracks in the wounds allows the light to shine through Allows me to be just who I am next to you Your weakness and strength are one in the same
The pride and shame they both carry your name I will hit you right there

I will hit you right there

In the most painful spot

I will hit you right there

I will hit you right there In the most painful spot

I will hit you right there

I will hit you right there Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away

Don't Look Away,

Don't Ever Look Away Don't Look Away...
