

Now

The Sweetest Condition

Whispers from the hall.
I can hear them calling,
trading their white lies in exchange for mine. Thought I found the truth inside every bottle,
'til I saw the worm hiding at the bottom. They say the only way out is through.
I'm so confused.
I can't fall apart NOW! Why stay in the cage?
Why carry the burden
weighing on my mind,
if I am the warden? They try to pull me into their game.
I'm not falling for it!
I think I might be losing my mind;
Look who's laughing NOW! They say the only way out is through.
only if it's through you.
I'll walk right through you! I found a way out of this place, and I'm taking it!
I found a way out of this town, and I'm leaving you NOW! I'm leaving you NOW!
I'm leaving you NOW!
I'm leaving you NOW! I can't fall apart now.
