

Fabulous On the Catwalk

I, Tay Stayness

I look fabulous on the catwalk

But I'm mystified by critics

But the journalists never seem to see it

And when the beat dips

My name will be on all of your lips

I'm fantastic, fabissimo, I'm amazing, astounding, out standingI got that cat attitude, my tiger skin rules

But I'm mystified by critics

the journalists never move

They just insult my motion

They never stop the groove

Feelin the moves, everytime I move my hips

I prepare for a double dip

I bobbin my head to the left

I little bit of a shake to the right

Then I shake my booty, with all of my might

Ugh keeping it fresh, keepin it clean

Ya know I'm always gonna be

Trendy in the fashion mags

As I strut muh stuff down the stage

I looka left right, left, right

They say I look fabuluso

I say mercy me thank you

Cos when the aces are high

I wiggle my stuff down the stage

DO it so effortlessly

They jiggle and they shake, and the tiger rules the placeI'm wicious, i'm wiggling

Cos when it's upstart jump throws noone ever really knows be magnificent be fabulificent

You walk the walk and talkin the talk

But I'm fabulous on the cat walkThe way the music plays, compliments my hips

Know when it dips, Im gonna be 'in it'Cos when it's upstart jump throws noone ever really knows be magnificent be fabulificentShe said 'you look fabulous on the catwalk'I'm wicious, I'm wigglin'
