Hidden War

Dizzy Mizz Lizzy

(Track 12 on "Dizzy Mizz Lizzy")Sun has set very red
wanna go all the way
so they say
see their eyes
the way they shine
don't they say:
all the way
paralysed
hypnotized
they can go all the way
go today
don't you know
you gotta go
you can go all the way
see them go all the wayWaitin' for the hidden war so they can go all the way waitin' for the hidden war
and when I'm down on the ground she can go all the way
all the wayTrapped inside this vicious circle watching out for friendly fire I keep searching for the answer in their lies
while they smile
who is on my side?Children run jump the gun
wanna go all the way
like a game
wave goodbye
proud to die
sure to go all the way
carved in stone
name unknown
really went all the way
what a day

formalized
and eulogized
then they all go away
see them all slip awayWatin' for the hidden war so I can go all the wayLyrics by Tim Christensen and Thomas Rockwell
