

Show Me Love

Rakim

Yeah, check it out, show me love Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till dawn Yo, it's time to bring the day in, fresh out the crib sautee in'
Around the way-in, swerve on, surveyin'
That's when I saw her, the kind you wanna see more of
The sexy aura, it made it hard to ignore her Expression her possession of property skyrocket
I'm investin' in her presence and in time it profits
I take a acre for you, fertilize the soil
And make it boil, till it produce black oil The Shorty sweet as the flavor of forty divas
Photos and features worth more than Mona Lisa's
It's lady luscious, tender touches my blood rushes
Smiles and blushes on billboards and buses And me, I'm just a bronze skinned calm gentleman
Slim fit and open arms mellow with a Don's grin
Ghetto disciplined could be your confidant beyond friend
It's one of Allah's men, Rakim, show me love Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till dawn Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
So we can get it on I'm in effect mode, I keep the EP sewed
When you express your finesse to your dress code
Every step's a pose, you've been blessed and it shows
My interest grows, the effervesce explodes Because this chick's characteristic's mystic
Hips are thick, just a little bit of lipstick
Can't resist it, description Egyptian smile
Queen of the Nile, that means she dipped in style She re-mind of Nefertiti, yes indeed-y
But it's hard to get it like hieroglyphic graffiti
Studied her exhibits and checked her colorful curves
Intellect with swerves I coulda wrecked my nerves that's my word Diggin' her enigma that exist in a sister
Carefully wrapped in her figure, we connect like a collision
And hug just to knowledge her wisdom
Speed up my metabolism, show me love Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till dawn Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long

So we can get it on Your M.O. is hard not to notice, so my motives is to stay focused
Body moves like aerobics attractions
Vibes I caught came from your ways and actions
But mind frame hard to explain, no actin' or mind games But thinkin' of what can happen is migraines
The X-rated though remains we relaxin'
And you naggin' me for the agony to your anatomy
By the fractions your measurements The pleasure's in every inch of your temple
I travel twenty-three million miles of your mental Chemistry, between you and me, in harmony
Causin' angles to meet like trigonometry or pyramids That's where your deepest, treasures are hid
Then it gets, odiferous, 'cause I know where it is
I mastered that, 'cause it's easy when you react
The all-natural aphrodisiac, show me love Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till' dawn Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
So we can get it on Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till dawn Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
So we can get it on Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
promise you'll stay all night long
Makin' love till dawn Promise you won't do me wrong
If I turn you on
Promise you'll stay all night long
