Warzone

Framing Hanley

Change your ways, for them
It's all part of the game we play
Fight for what you could never ever win
Take a number, welcome to L.A.
This is where it's led
I think about the ways, the means, the in betweens
I've really lost my head
I think about the exit plan, where does this end?
Better keep your head down
My life is a warzone
Torn between what's right and wrong
My life is a warzone, there's no way out
I'm gonna end up hurting someone
Creep around on the egg shells, down at the start
Don't know how I'm gonna make it today
Frustrated and losing myself in the part
Now the white coats come to put me away
Hanging by a thread I live without
Time for what's real, these moments I must steal
I pick through what's left, I live without Letting pain I feel have the chance to heal
Better keep your head down
My life is a warzone
Torn between what's right and wrong
My life is a warzone, there's no way out
I'm gonna end up hurting someone
I'm waiting for better days
These hard times won't go away
I still haven't found my way
Where there's nothing left to leave behind
I won't give you what is mine, I'll be fine
Better keep your head down
My life is a warzone
Torn between what's right and wrong
My life is a warzone, there's no way out
I'm gonna end up hurting someone
My life is a warzone
Torn between what's right and wrong
My life is a warzone, there's no way out

I'm gonna end up hurting someone
