

I Hope

Damnation Angels

Don't fear about your prisoner, hope he'll set you free

This is my last request and you, forgive me for what I have done I've come to realize, as the years passed me by I made a mistake, I was living a lie

I hope that the ocean will be as blue as in my dreams
I hope that one day I will see my friends again I know I'm soon to see and find that I'm nothing on the outside, I hope
I hope

Just leave me alone in my empty cell
My thoughts of gold were about this lonely shell
I was in the cold of night, I cramped of a day
I've been released from this cell, for gold

I hope that the ocean, son of the bluest sky and I recall I think that I've been there in my dreams before I know that in life he'll set me free and I keep holding on, I hope

Get me out of this cell, was I too long tight in this prison cell?
Will you set me free? Release the pain of life from me Tell me what you see, the thoughts of men was left to me
Will you set it free? Beyond this pain left to open me

Hope never dies

Can I be condemned for life, for my mistakes?
You know I regret what I have done, oh yes
Can I see forgiveness in my soul?
To set me free, set me free

I hope that the ocean, son of the bluest sky
and I recall I think that I've been there in my dreams before I know that one day we'll meet again
and I keep holding on, I hope
