

Blood Is Thick

Gorefest

When the mind is blank
When all has been said
Never look back, always aheadWhen the book's been read
Have no regrets
Never walk back, always aheadMy blood is thick, your word's thin
Spread from a beggar's mind
My blood is thick, no regrets
'Bout what I leave behindTime is all I can lose
Now time to choose
I choose my timeI feed off the hand that is mine
Nothing to lose
Time only, time only, timeWhen the book's been read
Have no regrets
Never walk back, always aheadMy mind is tired, beaten numb
By the stench from a beggar's mind
My blood is thick, beat yourself
I won't stay behindTime is all I can lose
Now time to choose
I choose my timeI feed off the hand that is mine
Nothing to lose
Time only, time only, timeMy blood is thick, your words are thin
My blood is thick, your words are thinTime is all I can lose
Now time to choose
I choose my timeI feed off the hand that is mine
Nothing to lose
Time only, time onlyTime is all I can lose
Now time to choose
I choose my timeI feed off the hand that is mine
Nothing to lose
Time only, time only, time
