Don't Wanna Say Goodbye

Jeff Scott Soto

I can barely remember
What it was that made me walk away
But something inside my heart
Is telling me I still love you, baby
Now I'm walking all alone
This cold December day
I see you come to me, but I can't see
'Cause all I wanna do is tell you, baby
How many times
I daydreamed of what we could have been?
And how many times
I find myself asking why?
I will never stop loving you
Can you tell me what I gotta do
'Cause I never wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
Now I know that I was meant for you
One more time I can't bear to lose
I don't ever wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
We thought it'd last forever
But still I was swept away
What I thought I knew it wasn't true
I wish I wouldn't knew before today
I always said I'd never
Let myself lose again
Yes, I found a way
What I gotta do
To get myself back to you
How many times
I daydreamed of what we could have been?
How many times
I keep asking myself why?
I will never stop loving you
Can you tell me what I gotta do
'Cause I never wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
Now I know that I was meant for you
One more time I can't bear to lose

I don't ever wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
How can I get through to you?
I'm not even close to over you
Telling you the truth
Got me shaky
There's nothing I won't do
To get you right back next to me
The way it's supposed to be
I will never stop loving you
Can you tell me what I gotta do
'Cause I never wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
Now I know that I was meant for you
One more time I can't bear to lose
I don't ever wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
I will never stop loving you
Can you tell me what I gotta do
'Cause I never wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
Now I know that I was meant for you
One more time I can't bear to lose
I don't ever wanna say goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye again
Say goodbye
