

Hello Again

Well, well, hello again, tell me where you've been
It's been a while oh honey, my old friend
You've been there for me, faithful as you can be
You're the one I count on in the end I wish it weren't so but that's how it seems to go
One night you're making memories then that's all you are Well, hello again, tell me where you've been
It's been a while oh honey, my old friend
You've been there for me, faithful as you can be
You're the one I count on in the end
Well, hello again I wish it weren't so but that's how it seems to go
One night your making memories then that's all you are Well, hello again, here's to what might have been
We've got no secrets, no reasons to pretend
Talk about old times, laugh until we cry
We haven't done this since I don't know when Well, hello again, tell me where you've been Well, hello again, here's to you old friend Well, hello again, la, la, la, la, la, la
Well, hello again, la, la, la, la, la, la
Well, hello again, la, la, la, la, la, la
Well, hello again, la, la, la, la, la, la
