

Stuck in My Mind

The Glass Child

I'm walking 'round in circles
I don't know where I am
I keep looking back at the road that I ran
Two steps forward, one step back
Is there a way out of my mind? I'm digging my own grave
Can't control my hands move
I start to suffocate
You can't see me, can you?
Had it all planned out, and written down
Now i'm held back by my own mind. I've been reading books of wisdom Quotes and thoughts of who we are
He said "we're all in the gutter some are looking at the stars" I have tried to find myself
Search for answers in the dark
Sleepless everynight
I've prayed to every kind of God. Have to get out
Out of my mind
Teach me mortality
My mind is killing me. I'm so undone
Have to go on
I'm my own enemy
Show me reality. Observe me and keep me holy. All the ones who have been broken
Know they can survive
Though I may have fallen
I grew stronger everytime. I can't find a way to live
Been walking dead for so long Read "as long as you keep moving you'll end up where you belong" Have to get out
Out of my mind
Teach me mortality
My mind is killing me. I'm so undone
Have to go on
I'm my own enemy
Show me reality. Observe me and keep me holy. Have to get out
Out of my mind
Teach me mortality
My mind is killing me. I'm so undone
Have to go on
I'm my own enemy

Show me reality. Observe me and keep me holy. There's a tree grabbing hold on my shoulders
And a ghost flying over my head
A monster is crawling from underneath
I scream but in silence instead. Can someone come figure me out?
I thought I was hidden so well
But they found me somehow
They're dragging me down
They're making me blind
Can someone take me out of my mind?
