Have It All

Aj Mclean

I want to have it all happiness and love all around Always wanted finer things but all that money brings me down Gonna walk around in your head it's time to start moving And do what you said
Gonna walk around in your head
Don't know where you're going But you know where you stand
'Cause everybody walks alone
when they feel like they don't belong
If only you try, then you can have it all
But you need to let go, of everything you know
If you live and let die, then you will have it all Some people let it in while lovers let the moments pass them by oh why
And there's never any question it was always right in front of your eyes
oh why

I'm gonna walk around in your head you know where you're going And you know where you stand
'Cause everybody walks alone
when they feel like they don't belong
But you need to let go, of everything you know
'Cause everybody walks alone
when they feel like they don't belong
If only you try, then you can have it all
But you need to let go, of everything you know
And I'll wait for you now while you turn things around I will wait for you now to be ready, where you are

'Cause everybody walks alone
and they feel like they don't belong
If only you try, then you can have it all
But you need to let go, of everything you know
