

Pure Rock Fury

Clutch

I walk wherever the weather provides
'Cause everybody needs some time outside
Gimme no lip and I'll tell you no lies
Mmm hmm, mmm hmm, mmm hmm, mmm hmm Hey fella, hands down the illest ventriloquist
This side of the Mississippi River, ha
That's right operator, smoother than faders
On an automated soundboard Andretti's never raced me, but if he wants to Oh, I'm ready, ready
The coordination of the eye and hand, it's not my strong point
But I'll make do with what I have Pure rock fury the solution is so clear
And I'm calling all humans and able volunteers I walk wherever the weather provides
'Cause everybody needs some time outside
I've seen the boxes with películas
One time stands out in particular, uh huh I saw you dance in the arena hall in make-up
Dressed up like a ballerina
I got to wonder what's got into you
Or just what you got into, got into, got into, ha ha Pure rock fury the solution is so clear
And I'm calling all humans and able volunteers
Pure rock fury the solution is so clear
And I'm calling all humans and able volunteers I walk wherever the weather provides
'Cause everybody needs some time outside
Gimme no lip and I'll tell you no lies
Mmm hmm, mmm hmm, mmm hmm, mmm hmm Hotter than Abba in Nevada sun
In a real small car with the windows rolled up, oh
No super trooper 'cause you pooped your pants
And you're screamin' ah please, just give me one more chance Not one to shrink from helping humankind
Brother one other thing that you might keep in mind
The coordination of the eye and hand, it's not my strong point
But I make do with what I have Pure rock fury the solution is so clear
And I'm calling all humans and able volunteers
Pure rock fury the solution is so clear
And I'm calling all humans and able volunteers
