

Bring Down the Moon

Boy Meets Girl

I'm walking in darkness with no shadows
Tears fall in silence with no sound
I've got to let go of visions I've outgrown
Even I know
So let the rain come down Bring down the moon
The mythic and mighty that fall when you lean
Bring down the moon Building love on thin air and dreams
Perfect love is a desperate creed
And one that we all try to believe
So bring down the moon I'm finding some comfort in closing the distance
Between my life and my dreams
Ooh, if love's not forever I need to discover
The spirit of romance and magic
In living from day to day Bring down the moon
The mythic and mighty that fall when you lean
Bring down the moon Building love on thin air and dreams
Perfect love has no guarantee
Still we keep trying to believe
So bring down the moon, yeah, yeah Bring down the moon
Well, there's no guarantee
That there ever will be perfect love
(Perfect love)
(So let the rain come down) I know that it hurts 'cause I used to believe
(So let the rain come down)
I know how it hurts, yeah Bring down the moon
The mythic and mighty that fall when you lean
Bring down the moon Building love on thin air and dreams
Perfect love, there's no guarantee
(Perfect love, perfect love, perfect love)
And still we believe
(Perfect love, perfect love, perfect love)
Bring down the moon So bring down the moon
Bring down the moon
So bring down the moon
