

Bury Your Head (Acoustic)

Saoin

Bury your head
Bury your head

I was feeling fine
You'll be coming clean tonight
And i'll be falling down with you once again
Call me your valentine
Call me once tonight
And I haven't said its Ok

The things you said I'm rehearsing them
The things you said I'm rehearsing them

They went back on us
(closed eyes rolled back couldnt step it up)
I could know when to come onto it
Its the thought that emerges
(set back couldnt step it up)
I could never love the idle vein

Bury your head and the child smashed you down
When this stops you shouldn't call me again
Fall down below
I'll sleep tonight when your Ok
And I haven't said its Ok

The things you said I'm rehearsing them
The things you said I'm rehearsing them

They went back on us
(closed eyes rolled back couldnt step it up)
I could know when to come onto it
Its the thought that emerges
(set back couldnt step it up)
I could never love the idle vein

Bury back the words you say now
This is what you call love

They stole my life

stolen it all
they wandered around and round I know
They stole my life
Stolen it all
Stole it all
Bury back the words you say now

They went back on us
(closed eyes rolled back couldnt step it up)
I could know when to come onto it
Its the thought that emerges
(set back couldnt step it up)
I could never love the idle vein

You'll come clean tonight
