

One Thing (prod. by Brian Kennedy)

Brandy

I fall on my knees and pray for heaven to show me the answer, make me complete today soul, heart, body, and mind if I could ask for just one more thing send to me the perfect lover wouldn't want for anything I'll be happy in time, my heart, my hearts so ready to fall
but the fact I got it all,
it all means nothing if I aint got love
missing that one thing,
one touch, one kiss,
I need that one thing
just that one more thing
one thing, one touch, one kiss,
just that one more thing,
I hold out my hand and pledge never to sell myself short, I'm gotta hold my head up and I'm gonna keep it high and I go out into the world wondering if I make it too hard to find someone to love me for me no more wasting my time, my heart, my hearts so ready to fall
but the fact I got it all,
one touch, one kiss,
one thing, one touch, one kiss,
is it too much to ask,
for a man that I can love who's gonna love me back?
give me that,
cause I need that,
really need that one thing

just that one thing
by the fact I got it all,
it all means nothing
if I aint got love
just that one thing my heart,
