Ritual Song

Lust & Lies

Everybody's stretchin' the truth to see
Everybody's fakin' their chains to be
No one's ever askin' the price to stay
No one's ever lookin' beyond today

Everybody's playin' the holy game
No one ever questions the lack of aim
Everybody's soundin' the same to me
Everybody want's to escape the need

Another line of doors
Long and blue, tried and true
Come Through

Say the oath
Light the flame
Ring the bell
Call the names, Surrender to
Make tonight, Night of Pan
Another ritual at hand
Burning blue

Look around now
You got a brand new door
You gotta move through

Live for love
Live for pain
Make the meaning
Burn the page
Forever New

Blood upon the alter
Sweet Perfume, blooms
The many has no shelter
Great sea moves, through

Another line of doors
Long and blue, tried and true

Come Through

Say the oath
Light the flame
Ring the bell
Call the names, Surrender to
Make tonight, Night of Pan
Another ritual at hand
Burning blue

Look around now
You got a brand new door
You gotta move through

Live for love
Live for pain
Make the meaning
Burn the page
Forever New

Say the oath
Light the flame
Ring the bell
Call the names, Surrender to
Make tonight, Night of Pan
Another ritual at hand
Burning blue

Look around now
You got a brand new door
You gotta move through

Live for love
Live for pain
Make the meaning
Burn the page
Forever New
