Emotional Times

Taproot

Life sucks, sometimes friendships turn to lies
A hatred in disguise it brings tears to my eyes
I can see the truth from the neutral side in my mind
Confusion cripples me into my element of control unsurenessEmotional times, I'm justTraumas etched in my mind, I can see 'em all the time
I've seen my share of pain and suffering, I am just fine
Respecting something more than nothing all the time
And it's time to move onEmotional times, I'm just fine
Emotional times, I'm just fineI have seen my faith sailing away
And I have seen my faith's coming back to me
I can see it coming back to me
I can see it coming back to me
I can see it, I can taste it
I can live it 'coz I'm just fineEmotional times, I'm just fine
Emotional times, I'm just fine
