Sinnergod

It's a little bit crazy when the lights go down
It's never been easy walking through this town
Just a few more steps until the lights go down
God its always been creepy when the lights go downIt's a little bit crazy when the lights go down
It's never been easy walking through this town
I can feel you watching me
When the lights go down and there's no one left but meMy heart beats faster when the lights go down
Just a little more eerie when the lights go down and i can feel you watching me
When the lights go down and there's no one left but meJust a few more steps until the lights go down
