Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

What it do, Baby blue
Who am I, Who are you
Do you think
That we could ever be
One instead of two
What it is
About you is
I love everything your kiss
Your lips your eyes your nose
You're perfect
You're perfect for me me me me me
You're perfect for me me me meee me
You're perfect for me I know I'll never get you girl
If I let you go and forget you girl
So I call and I text you girl
To let you know
I want next to you girl We've been playin musical chairs
For years
Walkin up and down the stairs
Smile as we pass every once in a while
Used to buy a little grass
From your brother as a child
Now I'm grown up
Maybe not but I know enough
And if i don't
I aint gonna show her love
Be strong
Take your broken heart
Sew it up
No stairs
This elevator's goin up
I'll be your paradise
Million dolla gamble

The odds are against us
But I've got it handled
Cause
I'm talkin in the mirror today
Cause when i see you in the street
I never say What it do, Baby blue
Who am I, Who are you
Do you think
That we could ever be
One instead of two What it is
About you is
I love everything your kiss
Your lips your eyes your nose
You're perfect
You're perfect for me I know you'll never get me girl if i don't let you know who i am pretty girl
but in my head
i see you dancin and twirlin ill be your beach boy you can be my city girl Love and happiness
But in nappiness
Peanut butter skin
salt water taffy lips
Cu-pid said
love aint an accident ran outta arrows
so he hit me with a javelin Travelin Willberry mixed with the ramblin
Man Man i wanna feel more like a jam band you my good time girl whats happenin
Tv on the radio's gotta keep cracklin I ain't an actor
You ain't an actress
I want a real love
No cameras No videos
No cameos No champagne (No champagne?)
Damn...
I'm talkin to myself again
Cause when i saw you on the street What it do, Baby do
Who am I, Who are you
Do you think
That we could ever be
One instead of two What it is
About you is
Your lips your eyes your nose

You're perfect
You're perfect for me me me me me
You're perfect for me me me meee me
You're perfect for me me me me me
You're perfect for me me me meee me
You're perfect for meIt hurts when I bite my tongue
With my teeth now it's three years later
And I still cant speak
I got every sneaker
But I still cant sneak
A peek so I'm still lookin for a girl dats cheap
I'm a freak
Feelin like a hunchback
In the corner
With the dunce cap
Put a hole in my heart
With a thumbtack
If you loved me
I never woulda done thatWhat it do, Baby blue
Who am I, Who are you
Do you think
That we could ever be
About you is
Your lips your eyes your nose
You're perfect (You're perfect)What it do, Baby blue
Who am I, Who are you
Do you think
That we could ever be
About you is
Your lips your eyes your nose
You're perfect
You're perfect for me me me me me
You're perfect for me me me meee me
You're perfect for me me me me me
You're perfect for me me me meee me
You're perfect for me
