

Natural Disaster (Laidback Luke Vs. Example)

Example

My friends say think of the bad things
My friends say think of the fights
And then it should be easier to walk away
No more sleepless nights
And even though I don't need you
You're clearly the best thing that happened to me
We should be happy ever after, happiness and laughter
What a natural disaster! Need to tell myself I don't care
Need to tell myself you're not there
Need to tell myself I don't care
Need to tell myself you're not there
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, The way I'm feelin', I just don't care! And even though I don't need you
You're clearly the best thing that happened to me
We should be happy ever after, happiness and laughter
What a natural disaster! Don't take you for a fool - never
We've been floatin' down a one way river
No way back, can't paddle upstream
I suppose I had a f-ed up dream
Had enough of you, had enough of me
What can I say, I'm in a one man team
Schemin' dreamin', wheeler dealin', feelin' strange
I'm in love with the scene
General Malice, seminal talent
Too many brain cells chemical imbalance
One day soon I'll get it all examined
'Til then I'm goin' on big talent
We write the future, new ruler
Too cool now, well it don't suit ya
This is Starship Troopers living on a whole other planet
Reboot computer [x3] Need to tell myself I don't care
Need to tell myself you're not there
Need to tell myself I don't care
Need to tell myself you're not there
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, need some space

Need some air, need some space
Need some air, need some space
Need some air, The way I'm feelin', I just don't care! And even though I don't need you
You're clearly the best thing that happened to me
We should be happy ever after, happiness and laughter
What a natural disaster! You're far too good for me
I said you're far too good for me
We should be happy ever after, happiness and laughter
What a natural disaster! We should be happy ever after, happiness and laughter
What a natural disaster!
