

This Will Be

Chelsea Williams

This will be one of those days
One of those days where you donâ€™t get the pleasure
Of running away from what you know is real
And you feel it creeping up behind you like a ghost
Sneaking around right under your little nose

Come down from your pedestal
Thereâ€™s so much youâ€™ve got to know
But you wonâ€™t see through those eyes
You want to believe it comes easily
But youâ€™re wrong

This will be one of those days

(Note: this section transcribed by ear)
You tried to reach something you canâ€™t see
Something is slowly pulling you down
Cause you wonâ€™t listen to everything you are given
You are torn for everything you show
Thatâ€™s pulling apart right under your little nose

Come down from your pedestal
Thereâ€™s so much youâ€™ve got to know
But you wonâ€™t see through those eyes
You want to believe it comes easily
But youâ€™re wrong
