

I Met A Girl - Acoustic Mixtape

Sam Hunt

She don't laugh at everything, but when she does, the planets swing around her.

She don't step on sidewalks seams.

Her teenage boyfriends still dream about her.

She don't need the glitter of the Vegas lights.

She could blow a kiss and leave you spinnin' like a tilt-a-whirl.

I met a girl.

She made me smile, me made me wait.

She crossed the street, she crossed my heart.

She fixed her dress, she bit her lip, she lit me up.

I met a girl, with crazy shoes, and baby blues.

The way she moves, is changin' my whole world.

I met a girl. Sunrise waits for her to wake up.

She's a ponytail no makeup Saturday.

She don't need umbrellas in the summer rain.

She could catch the eye of a hurricane, in blue jeans and pearls.

I met a girl.

She made me smile, she made me wait.

She crossed the street, she crossed my heart.

She fixed her dress, she bit her lip, she lit me up.

I met a girl, with crazy shoes, and baby blues.

The way she moves, is changin' my whole world.

She turned around, and it felt like the street turned upside down.

The only thing that I could say was hey.

And I'm just glad she didn't walk away. I met a girl.

She made me smile, she made me wait.

She crossed the street, she crossed my heart.

She fixed her dress, she bit her lip, she lit me up.

I met a girl, with crazy shoes, and baby blues.

The way she moves is changin' my whole world. I met a girl.

I met a girl.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>