

Creeping Inside

Negative

Her love is too much for my heart, she burned me out, I felt to protect myself from her smile; so divine...

And I'd like to save her but I think it's too hard, too hard for her and for me. And she makes me feel, my heart is creeping inside. Together we can see all incompleteness on a different way. she keeps on staring straight and true, it makes me weak... I felt to protect myself from her eyes too divine.
And I'd like to save her, but I think
and for me.
