

Crazylove

Boomkat

Does anybody know what, what they have crazy love for? (I do)
If you do raise your hands up high for me if you got crazy love
'Cause I know I got a ton of it
I'm gonna be a little bit specific

I'm gonna break it down uno by uno,
What I got crazy love for...
So hold on tight, lets take a ride
I got crazy love

For my daddy, god rest his soul
And I got crazy love
For the height that I set my goals
I got crazy love for goin' out and gettin' loose

I got crazy love for break beats and drum loops
I got crazy love for rainy days, grande vanilla lattes,
And be in taryn age 22
I used to be crazy in love w/someone crazy as me

Course we broke up so then I wrote the wreckoning
Well let me bring it right back to where I started from
I gotta grip of mad silly stupid wicked kind of crazy love (crazy)
I'm crazy (i got crazy love)

Said I got crazy love (crazy)
For sleepin' in and eatin' out
And I got crazy love for my crew who I can't live without
I got crazy love for writin' songs for when I'm down

I got crazy love for the boomkat sound.
I got crazy for my Adidas and my lawyer Greg Ladidas
Have you see the new car that I drive around!
Well you can lend it and spend it and give it away

You know it all comes back to you one day
And by the look on your face
I can see a trace of what appears to be a space in your heart
Feelin' it with crazy love

I'm crazy (i got crazy love)
Yes, crazy...
What's up kellin? how you doin'?

Yo, I got crazy love for makin hip hop beats
I got crazy love for gettin' freaky in my sheets
I got crazy love for the beatles and the stones
But we ain't got no love for people who don't have any love shown
I got crazy love for doin' tae-bo at the gym
I got crazy love for my baby madison
We got crazy love for our strong single mother
We got crazy love for people helpin out each other
I got crazy love for you, my crazy older brother
Yo, I got crazy love for you too

Well you can lend it and spend it and give it away
You know it all comes back to you one day
And by the look on your face
I can see a trace of what appears to be a space in your heart

Ah, you can lend it and spend it and give it away
You know it all comes back to you one day
And by the look on your face
I can see a trace of what appears to be a space in your heart
Feelin it with crazzzzzy love

(C-R-A to the Z to the Y)
I'm crazzzzzy
Boomkat's in the house, what?
Crazy love
Stupid kinda crazy love

Crazzzy, oh yeah yeah
Its crazy
So now that I broke it done uno by uno
What I got crazy love for
I want you to go out and go find yourself some love
And you remember what I said, (what?) I got a ton of it

We got crazy love
That's right
I got crazy L-O-V-E
A ton of it!
(I got crazy love, yeah yeah yeah)
We got crazy love
Said I got crazy love
