Switchblade Smiles

Kasabian

Switchblade smiles
They go on for miles
And will be forever
Now we stand together
There's no denials

Much too soon
For the wooden spoon
Can you hear the knocking
Now your feet are stomping
Around the room

Switch blade smiles
They go on for miles
And will be forever
Now we stand together
And fill the aisles

No way back
From a shark attack
See the eyes rollover
From behind your shoulder
And fade to black
