

Crazy Not To

The Oak Ridge Boys

Love, I don't think so
I'd have to be a fool to go down that road
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
I'd be crazy not to know, it makes no sense
Why would I jump off a perfectly good cliff
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
I'd be crazy not to My best bet is turn around and run
And not get all caught up in your love
My friends say I'm crazy if I do
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
Oh, I'd be crazy not to My heart, is telling me to stay
Like maybe I should take a chance and have faith
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
Baby, I'd be crazy not to My best bet is turn around and run
And not get all caught up in your love
My friends say I'd be crazy if I do
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
Oh, I'd be crazy not to I know if I kiss you
It's only gonna lead to
More and more, and more, and more So my best bet is turn around and run
And not get all caught up in your love
My friends say I'm crazy if I do
Aw but look at you, look at you, look at you
Yeah, look at you, look at you, look at you
I'd be crazy not to, crazy not to Crazy not to fall in love
Crazy not to fall in love with you
With you, with you, with you Crazy not to fall in love
Crazy not to fall in love with you
I see you, you and me, you forever
