I Told You So

The Undertones

I wake up in the morning
I've been looking for a bed
Somebody told me
You've been sleeping in too lateI told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you so
Now it's too late to stop, I told you soI've been taking this trouble
Just to set my mind at ease
A man comes in crawling
Won't you please, please, pleaseI told you soI never did expect
To have to carry so much weight
But the photographs are ready
You're twenty minutes lateI told you so
