

Falling Stars

Nik Day

When the lights go out and all is dark,
And all you feel is your beating heart,
I will be right there to let you know you're safe.

When the water's deep and you lose your blow,
And your falling fast and the wind is cold,
I will be right here to help you find your way.

I will hold you,
Console you,
Keep you dry.
I will hide you,
Help you,
Keep your line.
I will catch you,
Lead you,
Safe from harm.
Cause we're all falling, falling stars.

When the fire inside you is almost out,
And the forces finding pull you down,
I will be there to get you back where you belong.

I will hold you,
Console you,
Keep you dry.
I will hide you,
Help you,
Keep your mind.
I will catch you,
Lead you,
Safe from harm.
Cause we're all falling, falling stars.
