

Only Takes One

Silk

Listen!

I got you down to talk to you
To tell you what's been weighing on my mind heavily
No, there's nothing wrong, just want a few Moments to express what you and I mean to me
Trynna hold back tears 'cause I gotta make this clear
Wrote what I wanted to say on this piece of paper,
Here goes It takes an army of thousands to win a war
But it takes nothing from me to love you more
Darling, I'm glad that you are mine
It takes a million men to find a sea of pearls
Billions of people to complete the world
But it only takes one, only takes one to complete mine From this day on I pray that you
Stay the most important part of life
To me, to me
Every time that you go away from me,
My heart is filled with anticipation exceedingly
Trynna hold back tears 'cause I gotta make this clear
Wrote what I wanted to say on this piece of paper,
Here it goes It takes an army of thousands to win a war
But it takes nothing from me to love you more
Darling, I'm glad that you are mine
It takes a million men to find a sea of pearls
Billions of people to complete the world
But it only takes one, only takes one to complete mine You're the one
That keeps my world turning
And I, I'm done
'Cause we keep on working
And the reason I'm still here
Is 'cause of you! It takes an army of thousands to win a war
But it takes nothing from me to love you more
Darling, I'm glad that you are mine
It takes a million men to find a sea of pearls
Billions of people to complete the world
But it only takes one, only takes one to complete mine
