Smile

David Sanborn

And it was all in your smile and it threw me off sky for awhile but when i looked up you were gone. It was all in your smile, something I hadn't found for awhile but when i woke up you were gone.
(Ooo Ooo Ooo)It was all in your smile. It was all in your smile. It was all in your smile.And it was all in your smile, and it threw me off sky for awhile, but when i looked up you were gone. It was all in your smile something i hadn't found for a while.(Ooo Ooo Ooo)It was all in your smile. It was all in your smile. It was all in your smile.Smile.
