FOR MOMENTS LIKE THESE - Canton Junction

What if all your questions are questions without answers, so you'll hold on longer?
And what if in the waiting, waiting on the Lord makes you stronger, oh, stronger?
What if doubt leaves you wondering how?
What if your heart says He's working it out?

Faith was made for moments like these,
When God knows what you can't see.
And you don't understand, but you choose to believe.
Faith was made for moments like these.

What if heaven's silent, and the silence seems to whisper, "Just keep hoping, oh, hoping?"
What if in the sorrow, the sorrow brings a healing to the broken, the broken?
What if it's all not a part of His will?
What if His mercy is deeper still?

Faith was made for moments like these,
When God knows what you can't see.
And you don't understand, but you choose to believe.
Faith was made for moments like these.

Oh, when you're standing in the in-between
Of what has been and what will be ...

Faith was made for moments like these,
When God knows what you can't see.
And you don't understand, but you choose to believe ....

Oh, faith was made for moments like these,
When God knows what you can't see.
And you don't understand, but you choose to believe.
Faith was made for moments like these,
For moments like these,
For moments like these.
